In collaboration with the Association of Sport Performance Centre (ASPC), the Hong Kong Sports Institute (HKSI) host organised the ASPC XII International Forum on Elite Sport: Enhancing Elite Sports – Asian Perspectives and Development from 4 to 6 December 2024 at HKSI. Due to pandemic scenario, the 12th edition of the forum was postponed from 2021 to 2024.

The forum aims to facilitate the sharing of best practices, to promote the professional development of leaders from high-performance training centres across the globe and to explore opportunities for enhanced global collaboration.

Hong Kong, China has been showcasing its allure as Asia's events capital on the global stage. International events hold strategic importance for the city, offering economic advantages while drawing talents from various sectors and tourists worldwide. The forum allows participants to experience Hong Kong's vibrancy firsthand, enhancing their appreciation and understanding of the city as a dynamic international metropolis.

The Forum gathered 181 leaders from 33 different countries and regions distributed in the 5 continents.

The origins of speakers are as well very diversified and cover most of the countries and regions in the globe:

For example: Australia, Canada, Finland, France, Hong Kong China, Japan, Mainland China, Malaysia, Singapore, South Korea, Spain, United Kingdom, United States.

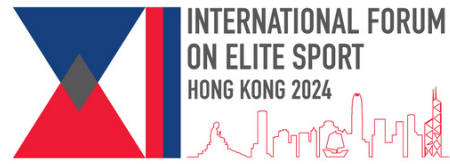

1. ABOUT THE HONG KONG SPORTS INSTITUTE (HKSI)

1.1 Introduction

The Hong Kong Sports Institute Limited (HKSI) was established on 1 October 2004. The aim of the HKSI is to provide an environment in which sport talent can be identified, nurtured and developed to pursue excellence in sport. Other than sports facilities, the support given to athletes includes elite coaching and training, sports science, sports medicine, strength and conditioning, athlete affairs and education, applied research and sports information.

1.2 Vision, Mission & Values

Vision

Guided by the Government's current policy direction, and using its professional expertise in elite sport, the Hong Kong Sports Institute's (HKSI) vision is to become the region's elite training systems delivery leader by providing state-of-the-art, evidence-based, elite sports training and athlete support systems resulting in sustainable world-class sports results.

Mission

In its role as the Government's elite sport training systems delivery agent, the HKSI is committed to working in partnership with the Government, the Sports Federation & Olympic Committee of Hong Kong, China, the China Hong Kong Paralympic Committee and the National Sports Associations to provide an environment in which sports talent can be identified, nurtured, and developed to pursue excellence in the international sporting arena.

Values

The HKSI holds that sport constitutes a fundamental social institution central to fostering a stronger value of national identity and to achieving public health goals of healthy, productive, united communities. The HKSI operates in an environment characterised by an uncompromising and ethical pursuit of excellence in sport through integrity, accountability to process and outcome, collegial stakeholder engagement, collaboration and teamwork, and inclusivity.

3.2 Press Release

In collaboration with the Association of Sport Performance Centre (ASPC), the Hong Kong Sports Institute (HKSI) host organised the ASPC XII International Forum on Elite Sport: Enhancing Elite Sports – Asian Perspectives and Development from 4 to 6 December 2024 at HKSI premises. The forum aims to facilitate the sharing of best practices, promote the professional development of leaders from high-performance training centres across the globe, and explore opportunities for enhanced global collaboration. The forum attracted over 170 international and local participants, including leaders, professionals, practitioners, coaches, athletes and representatives from 87 sports related organisations across 33 countries and regions.

The Opening Ceremony of the forum kicked off with an impressive performance by the Hong Kong, China wushu team, showcasing Chinese culture and athletic prowess. Mr Tang King-shing GBS PDSM, Chairman of the HKSI, delivered opening remarks highlighting the forum provided a vital opportunity to exchange ideas among international audience. He emphasised the insights and innovations will foster global impact through the discussion on unique lens of Asia perspectives and development. Mr Tapio Korjus, President of ASPC, expressed his delight in gathering all ASPC members in Hong Kong and looks forward to HKSI organising the forum, which serves as a platform for facilitating collaboration among sports organisation experts.

Over the course of the three-day forum, ten key topics were discussed, including: Leadership, Overcoming Challenges in the Development of High-performance Training Centres in Asia, Collaboration and Teamwork, Gaming and E-sports / Emerging Sports Campuses at High-performance Centres, Mental Wellness, Athlete Development, Learnings from Olympic and Paralympic Games, Athlete Health Care, Sports Technology, Sports Integrity and Safe Sport.

The forum gathered a total of 35 speakers from 24 countries and regions, including 12 local and 23 overseas speakers, and featured three keynote speakers: Dr Chang Yu-kai, Distinguished Professor and Chair of the Department of Physical Education and Sport Sciences of National Taiwan Normal

University, Mr Mike Miller, Chief Executive Officer of the World Olympians Association, and Dr Robert Schinke, President of the International Society of Sport Psychology. These experts shared valuable insights on mental wellness and athlete development, offering a global perspective on these critical topics.

The Closing Ceremony concluded with an energetic lion dance performance sponsored by the Hong Kong Tourism Board, showcasing the cultural heritage and spirit of unity. The Hon Cheng Wing-shun Vincent MH JP, Vice Chairman of the HKSI concluded the forum by expressing gratitude to ASPC for the support and partnership. He thanked all speakers and participants for their contributions to this memorable forum, believing the connections forged will pave the way for collaborative efforts that cross borders and foster growth in the sporting community. Mr Tapio Korjus, President of ASPC, also expressed gratitude to all participants for their valuable contributions and insights. He introduced the next forum host, Mr Simo Tarvonen, Director of the National Olympic Training Centre in Helsinki, Finland where the XIV International Forum on Elite Sport is set to take place in 2025.

This forum marks a significant step in advancing the dialogue on elite sports and strengthening international collaboration. The HKSI and ASPC look forward to continuing this important work, ensuring that the insights gained will have a lasting impact on the future of sport.

4. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Hong Kong Sports Institute (HKSI) wishes to express its sincere gratitude to The Association of High Performance Centres (ASPC) for their support and collaboration in the successful organization of the XII International Forum on Elite Sport: Enhancing Elite Sports – Asian Perspectives and Development.

We deeply appreciate the dedication and efforts of all ASPC Board Members, ASPC members, ASPC supporters, speakers, supporting organisations and participants whose contributions were instrumental to the forum's success. Your insights and expertise have greatly enriched our discussions on the advancement of elite sports within the globe. We hope that all participants enjoyed the forum and found it to be a valuable experience.

Furthermore, we extend our heartfelt thanks to our staff and volunteers for their support and commitment, which made this forum possible. Together, we are cultivating a dynamic environment for elite athletes and promoting the ongoing growth of sports throughout the globe.

We look forward to future collaborations with all of you that will further enhance the standards of elite sports in our region.

Once again, thank you for all your invaluable contributions and support! Best wishes to the next forum host, Helsinki, Finland in 2025. May your event be successful and inspiring!
